MANNight, special evening openings

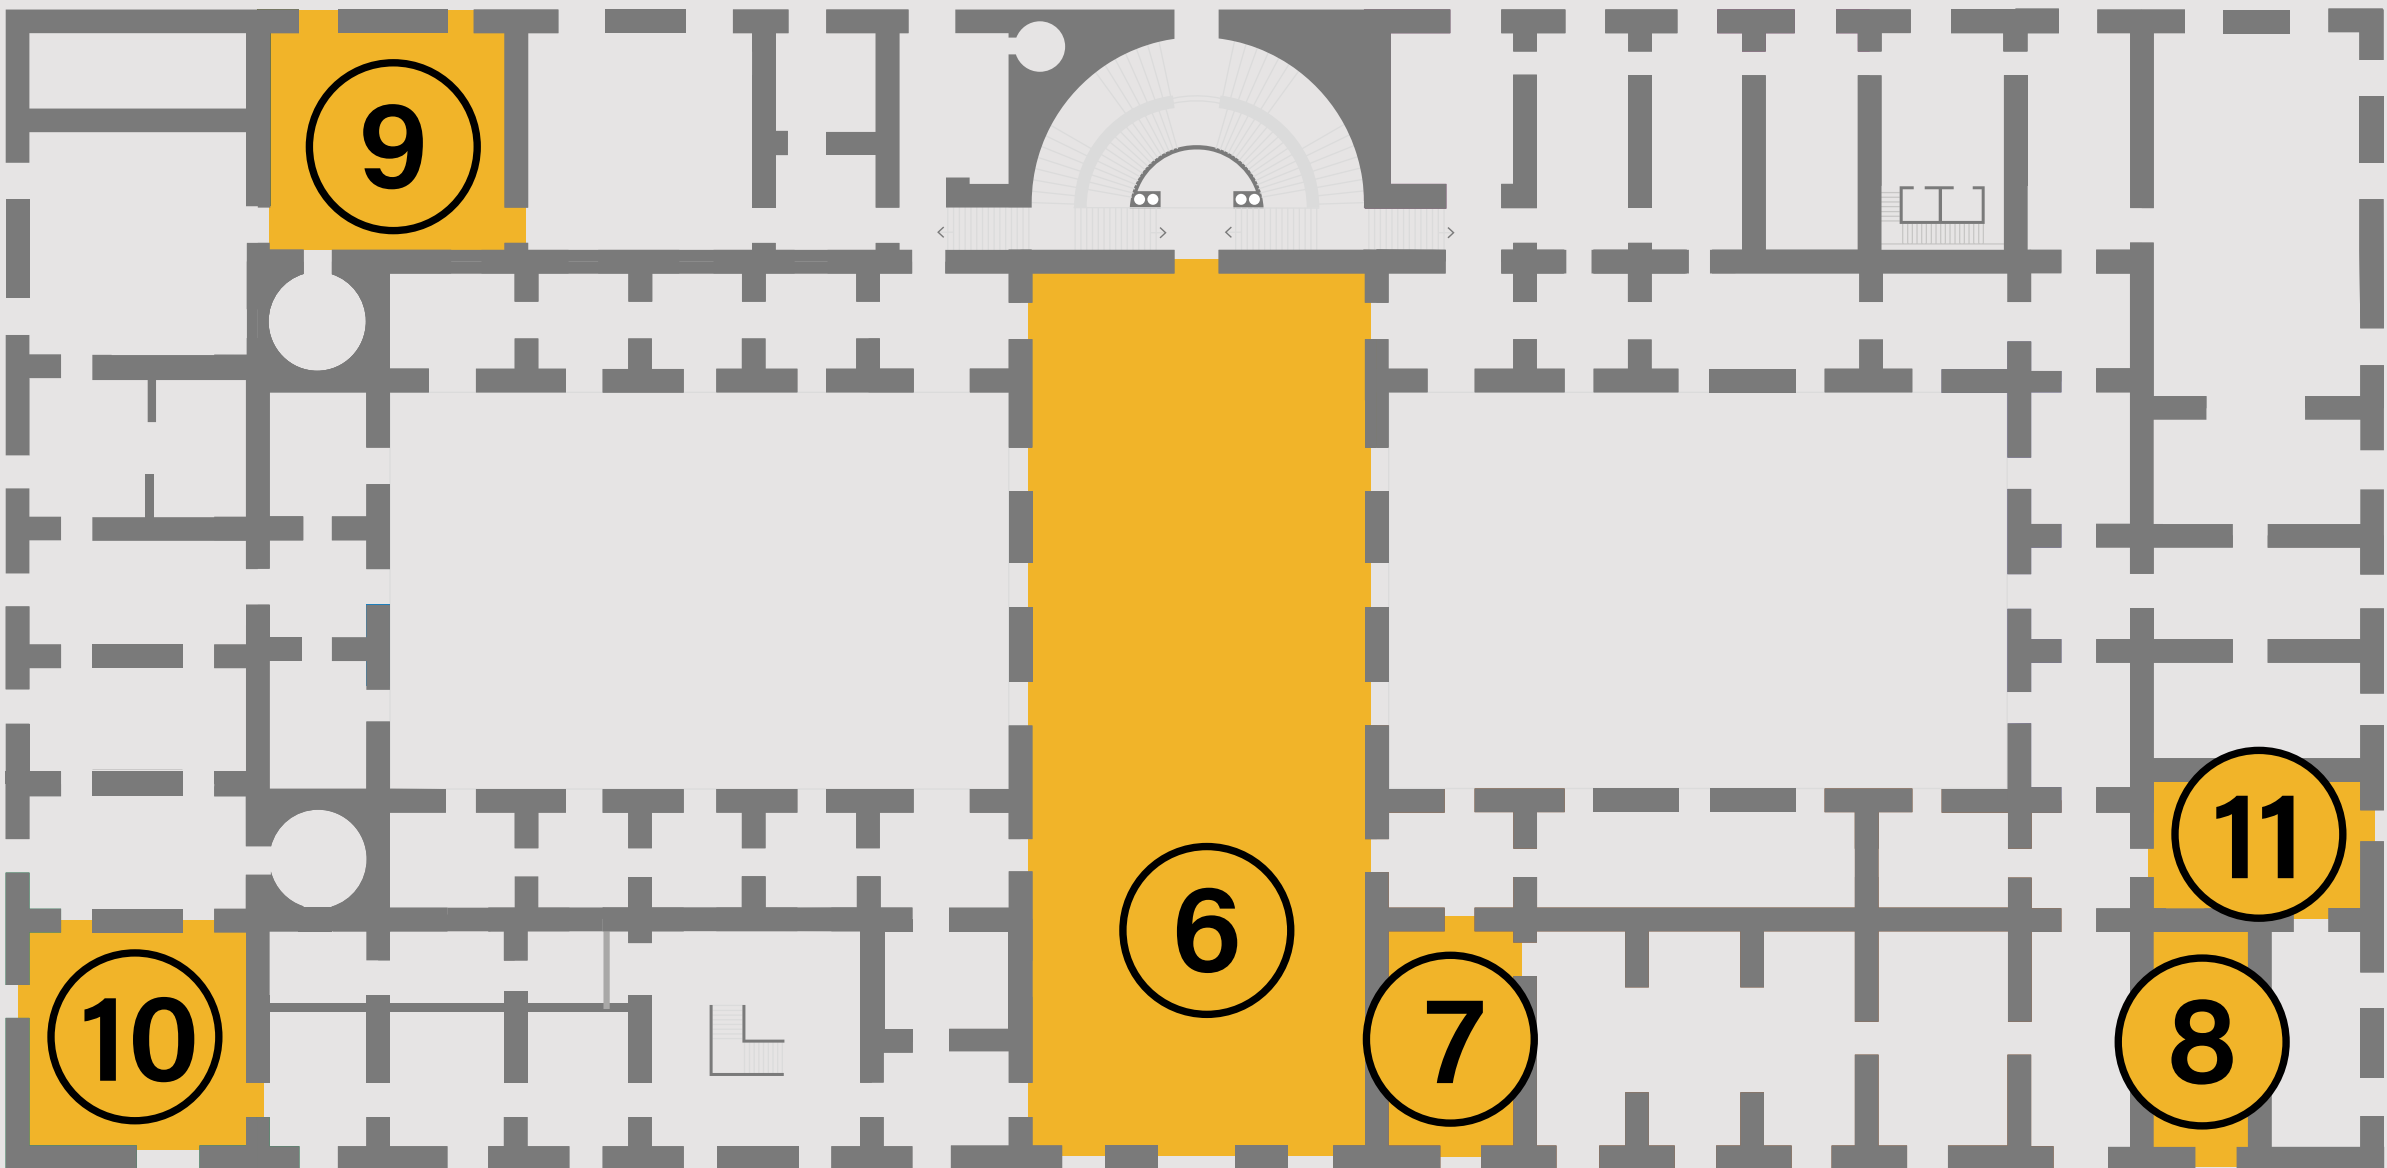

It is a different way to experience the collections of the Museum through site-specific artistic performances inspired by and dedicated to the works on display, repeated several times throughout the evening.

Body painting, artistic tattooing, multimedia installations, docubeat, audience interaction, living art, musical crossovers, and tableaux vivants.

An immersive experience inviting visitors to discover the Museum's extraordinary artworks in a new light.

MONUMENTAL STAIRCASE

⑤ Docubeat - Club Tasso

Sound and visual collages combining documentary material, music, and ambient sounds.

SECOND FLOOR

⑥ SUNDIAL HALL Cosmic Dialogues - Dance and music

Sara Lupoli, Julia Primicile Carafa

Two site-specific performances inspired by the relationship between sky, time, and the artworks housed in the hall.

⑦ FRESCOES - ROOM 67 Anima Vesuviana. Pictorial Act I Camouflage and performative body painting - Weronique Art

The frescoes of Boscoreale come to life: the artist transforms the faces and bodies of the models into elements of the collection, becoming part of the fresco itself in a seductive and surprising visual interplay.

8 FRESCOES - ROOM 73
"Respect me"

Antonella Romano

Red iron embroidery live performance, an artwork dedicated to women: a circle formed by small iron shoes that the artist invites the public to step into, sharing the creative experience and its message.

9 VILLA DEI PAPIRI - ROOM 117
Live music - String Quartet

Giovanni Sanarico, Ledia Nikolla, Carlo Coppola, Alessandra Gallo

Arrangements inspired by Kate Bush's "Wuthering Heights" and Bastille's "Pompeii". A journey through the Vesuvian ruins and their romantic imagery, a source of inspiration for art, literature, and music.

10 PIANA CAMPANA - ROOM 123
Live music - Tammorra and Dance

Enzo Tammurriello, Marta Peperna

A tribute to the traditions and rituals of the Campania region.

- 11 FRESCOES - ROOM 78
Mixels, interactive digital installation - *Cosa del Futuro
Reproduced faces and gazes blend with the images of the collection.
